Alexandria Gazette

WEDNESDAY EVEN'G., JANUARY 21.

LORD FAIRFAX .- A correspondent of the Louisville Courier Journal writes from Millwood, Va., that Thomas Lord Fairfax, whose remains lie under a marble slab in the Episcopal Church, in Winchester, said, when be heard of Washington's triumph at Yorktows: "Take me to bid, Jo ; it is time for Feirfex to die!" He had looked upon Washington as his protege, and being himself a staupch royalist, it cut him to the core to see the young Virginian champion the colonists' rights. Two or three traditions of this eccentric nobleman are preserved at Millwood. He was a "fine Oxford scholar, a member of the Addison's Club and the author of two or three numbers of the Spectator." According to tradition, he left According to tradition, he left England disappointed in an affair of the heart and buried his sorrows in the farthest part of his "ancestral woods." Near the present village of White Post, near Millwood, and which derived its appellation from a large white post that was planted there by him as a guide to his dwelling, he built "Greenway Court," and there spent the last thirty years of his life, dying in the year of 1782, shortly after the sorrender of Yorktown. Millwood is an interesting place. It was so named from the two large stone mills which General Dan Morgan made his Heisian prisoners build there. The mil's are still standing and grind 30 000 bushels of grain a year. Henry tharrison, President Harrison's private secretary, fives near there, as does Colonel Richard Henry Lee. The latter is a grandson of Richard Henry Lee, the first s goer of the Declaration of Independence, and a first cou-in of General R. E. Lec. He is a lowyer of considerable repute, and practices in Le -burg, Ladous county. In person he is medium height, dark bair, dark eyes and dark complexion, and wears a small military mous-

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE FOR 1880

The Alexandria Gazet'e, begun in 1799, is the oldest newspaper in Virginia, and it bassurvived, with few exceptions, all the public presses in America which saw with it the dawn of the nineteenth century. It lives too, not in decay or decrepit but full of life and youthful vigor, giving all the news, telling the truth without fear, favor er affection, trenching on the privacy of no man's home, but fell to the brim with all public information, and giving daily honest adgments of public men and public measures.

It furnishes the news telegrams of the New York Ascociated Press and of Reuter's European agency, being, with but two exceptions, the only paper between Baltimore and Richmond that is thus connected with the great N. W. COR. KING & WASHINGTON STS. fountains of the world's news.

With the coming year all the long tried and improved methods of making a standard newspaper will be continued, with such additional facilities as past experience justifies the proprietor in believing will add to the capacity of the Gazette to serve its readers. It expects to render faithful service to the city, the state and the country by a candid criticism of men and events in the interest of the people of the Common wealth

The year 1880 will be a period of critical interest in both the Union and the Commonwealth. The election of the eighteenth President of the United States will take place, with all the combinations precedent, and counts; consequences and settlements subsequent, will call for record in the coming volume. The developments of the financial situation, which may portend affluence and comfort or poverty and privation to thousands, are now in progress, and the columns of the Gazatte will note each step as well as chronicle the result. A new and striking foreign policy is among likely events, and the absorbing interest of it cannot be overestimated. In Virginia there is political chaos and industrial and commercial depression. The way out of this quagmire will fill many of those paragraphs with information of rare interest.

To meet all the demands upon it in an excentional year, the Gazette will be made a WASH-INGTON and BICHMOND NEWSPAPER, as well as an ALEXANDRIA JOURNAL. The Richmond and Washington news of the past year has left little to improve, but yet greater effort will be made to insure absolute perfection in these departments.

The city of Alexandria will find as usual its daily history in each evening's issue, and the intelligence of that section of the Commonwealth which nature has bound to Alexandria by the curvature of its mountains or the courses of its rivers as well as that portion linked to us by the iron bands of railways, will be assiducualy

The Business and Commercial columns of the Gazette will be filled with the earliest and most exact commercial news, edited with such painstaking care as will render an error, where even slight errors are dangerous, impossible.

The Cattle Markets of all the leading points of the world whose rates affect this market will be quoted, and regular statements of the Baltimore, Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria sales ficattle will appear.

The Flour, Grain and Produce movements will be noted daily, and the sales of the Alexandris and neighboring markets given with accuracy and dispatch. The Grocery and other markets will receive constant attention, and the money or stock markets of the country epitomized for its columns, full details being given to all stocks, &c., which find investors in this section of the country.

The advertising columns of the Gazette offer inducements which experience has shown to afford greater returns for a small investment than any other which can be made.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

The beginning of the New Year, which in this case marks the advent of another decade of the world's progress, is deemed a fit time for new features, so that from this date the Gazette for the country (tri-weekly) will be supplied at FOUR DOLLARS per annum, in advance.
